. . . star . . . Closed beta ended, I'm going to announce the changes to the game here, so you guys won't have to wait a whole month to play the final version: * The name of the game is changed to The Cleaner. * The name of the hero has changed to Captain. * The names of all the skills have changed. * All items have been re-created. * You will have to find all the old items in the game. * You will now be able to meet your ex-wife in her new house. * You will also have to start a new career after the events of the game. What is "The Cleaner"? "The Cleaner" is the game where you will have to play as Captain and keep the Star in an apartment. You must keep this Star in the apartment and do everything you can to keep it safe. All of the household items are placed at the start of the game. "The Cleaner" is a sandbox game, you don't have to try and complete missions, but you will be able to grow your skills if you try. You can buy new skills, buy new apartment furniture, buy new household items and you can even buy a boat and go on a sailing trip. You can also use your skills to do missions, but the only mission given to you at the start of the game is to keep the Star safe. All of the skills in the game have been re-created. The skills have been renamed, but they are the same skills. You can buy them with the same amount of credits. The Skills General skills The Cleaner: This skill makes you a cleaner. The Captain has a chance to keep the Star safe. If the Captain uses the Cleaner skill, he/she will be able to keep the Star safe for a short period of time. This skill can be used once per mission. The Professor: The Captain has a chance to find rare items. You will have to spend extra money to find the items. There are two types of rare items in the game. You can find them in garbage dumps, but you won't find them on your way to the game. Ship Refuel: This skill lets you refuel your boat. There is a chance to find new items and you can also buy new items using this skill. If you have this skill, 82157476af
